In the favoured northeast position, floor to ceiling glass creates light and space and leads to a large wave balcony capturing soaring views of the Opera House to best advantage and a generous view of the Western Harbour.

The elegant renovations and clever layout of the high level, 80sqm residence make it perfect for entertaining. It is also a tranquil retreat, high above the city heart.

Valuable features include a Caesarstone kitchen with European appliances, a well-appointed bathroom, a custom-made study area, plenty of storage cupboards and contemporary lighting throughout. This exceptional
